MASTER DRAWINGS

January 21st – February 19th, 2011

Shepherd & Derom hosts our sixth annual exhibition of Master Drawings in association with Margot Gordon and Crispian Riley-Smith. Recent acquisitions of Italian master works from the fifteenth through the eighteenth centuries anchor the exhibition. Among the highlights is an important pen and ink drawing of Two Putti by Raphael. Also notable is Guercino's Head of Saint Matthew, datable to the 1630s. From a private collection in the United Kingdom, this drawing is a recent addition to the oeuvre of Guercino. In addition, a brilliant pastel by Benedetto Luti, Head of a Young Apostle, is presented in its period frame. Also on view is a significant red chalk drawing by Girolamo Muziano, previously in the collection of Philip Pouncey. Among the eighteenth- and nineteenth-century Dutch and Northern European drawings that have become a specialty of our past exhibitions is included an interior of Ribe Cathedral by Danish artist Heinrich Hansen (1821-1890), which is reminiscent of the Dutch Golden Age. Leonardo Cremonini, Conrad Marca-Relli and Guisepppe Penone are among the twentieth-century artists represented.

You are cordially invited to attend
